Rod Stewart, in concert this summer at the Cap Roig Festival

Internacional | 06-06-2023 | 20:54

Rod Stewart

Iconic British musician Rod Stewart will be performing live at the Cap Roig Festival this summer. The concert is scheduled for July 14th at 10:00 PM.

Rod Stewart is a living legend of British rock and has sold over two hundred million records worldwide. His stellar career spans over fifty years and has left an indelible mark on the history of music.

Known for his raspy voice and musical versatility, Stewart has mastered various genres such as rock, folk, R&B, and American classics. His albums have topped the charts in every decade of his career, making him one of the best-selling artists of all time.

Rod Stewart's concert at the Cap Roig Festival promises to be one of the summer's most prominent music events. Tickets have sold out quickly due to the high demand and excitement generated by this legendary artist.

The open-air stage at the Cap Roig Festival, set in a stunning natural environment of 17 hectares facing the sea, within one of the most important botanical gardens in the Mediterranean, will accommodate 2,458 spectators to enjoy Rod Stewart's performance.

The Cap Roig Gardens, located between the municipalities of Palafurgell and Mont-ras in the Bajo Empordá region of Girona, are a unique place that combines nature, art, culture, and history. With over a thousand botanical species from around the world and sculptures by renowned artists, these gardens are recognized as one of the most important in the Mediterranean.

Music lovers and Rod Stewart fans will have the opportunity to enjoy his unmistakable style and talent in an exceptional setting during the Cap Roig Festival.

Autor: Drafting